Furlough Update

What a whirlwind our furlough was. We spoke at a different church almost every weekend from August through November as well as speaking for smaller groups and meeting with supporters several times a week. We loved seeing so many of you and are disappointed that we did not get to see everyone on our list! We homeschooled all three kids and also tried to spend as much time as possible with our extended families as well as shop for supplies needed for our return to Benin.

In November Donna had several surgeries. We are so thankful for the medical care available in the US and that Donna is recovering well. At the same time Donna's mother had surgery so Paul and the kids were kept busy taking care of Grandpa, Donna and helping as needed with Grandma. Due to all of these happenings Paul's study sabbatical was delayed a couple of weeks. Donna and the kids will fly to Kenya on December 30. Donna and Micah Joy will continue on to Benin early in January and Paul will arrive later in the month. To sum up our time in the USA we would have to say blessed, very blessed!
